

The mission of Wisconsin Association of Community Theatre is to foster and encourage the development of the highest standards of community theatres in Wisconsin, including standards of excellence for production, management, governance, community relations, and service to the community and state. We strive to increase communication among theaters and provide educational forums and performance opportunities for Wisconsin's community theaters.